

PAREXUSA

St. Rose of Lima School – Chula Vista, CA

ProjectProfile

Size: 30,000 sq. ft.

Distributor: Squires-Belt Material Company

Applicator: MirStone Plastering

Comments from Eric Miranda, Vice President, MirStone Plastering:

What were some of the most important product features you were looking for?

Performance durability and finished appearance

Why did you select the products used?

MirStone has had much success with the listed combination of products.

What advice would you give to another company about to embark on a similar project?

Parex has the products, sales and technical know how to get you through the exterior skin of any project.

What are some of the quantifiable results your company has experience since using this product?

Productivity gains. The 210 allows us to scratch and brown consecutively prime and finish in less time leaving us with less on the job exposure and a happy client.

Would you use Parex USA products again?

Yes because of the superior sales and technical team.

The Challenge

- Tight schedule. Job needed to be completed in 21 days.

The Solution

- Parex 210
- Parex 310 Primer
- Parex 535 Sand Coarse